(Start Belt #2)

Clerk reading.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, I believe, I may have to make a motion to talk on this, but I believe that this bill is printed improperly. I think on page 2, the United States of America has been stricken out and I think it should be in. I think the amendment is covered in the green books. It's on page 2, line 19.

SPEAKER: Yes, I see it is stricken out. Are there any comments from the committee on that, that heard the bill or--

SENATOR BARNETT: Well, we had quite a bit of discussion on the floor, Senator Proud, on this, and this, Terry, Senator Carpenter was going to take it out, it was amended out of Terry Carpenter's amendments. It was accepted that it should be in the bill. I think Senator Savage is where this--

SPEAKER: Senator Savage has nodded his head. I would, it would be the suggestion of the Chair; Senator Savage.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Senator Barnett is correct in this and--

SPEAKER: It would be the judgment of the Chair that it will not do any harm for it to lay over until we double check on this. If you will double check, Senator Savage, then if there are no objections, we will pass over that bill and I presume we should also pass over the A bill. Are there any objections to this procedure? Until this is checked out and we see where we are? If not, is so ordered. The next bill is 108. Clerk will read.

CLERK: Engross Legislative Bill 108. Introduced by Fred Carstens of the 30th district. (read).

CLERK: Roll call vote read. 24 ayes, 17 nays, 8 not voting.

SPEAKER: The bill fails.

CLERK: Senator Whitney voting aye?

SPEAKER: Uh, ha--Senator Whitney, I believe your position is that you attempted to vote before the vote was announced. I did not see you. I am going to rule that your vote cannot be counted but, of course, you have the right of reconsideration if you so desire. Therefore, the bill fails passage. L.B. 132. Clerk will read.
